

Resources and Services provided:

1. Information on obtaining behavioral and academic IEP/504 services
2. Information on IEP/504 plan compliance requirements
3. Information on what to do if your child's needs aren't being met
4. Information on who to contact locally within your child's school system (via our database)
5. Information on how to file complaints against noncompliance within your child's school system
6. A personal breakdown of your rights and your child's rights for better understanding (current IEP/504 plans only)
7. Peer support (for parents in need of advocates to help navigate this process)

Behavioral Health Resources:

1. Information on local behavioral programs (group and individual settings)
2. Information on initiating and maintain a behavioral improvement plan within your child's school
3. Information on countless community resources and private funded resources for various issues:
 - Grief support/therapy
 - Psychiatrists
 - Therapists
 - Substance abuse
 - Homelessness prevention
 - Information on obtaining health insurance (state or privately funded)

Academic Resources:

1. Information on local tutoring programs (income-based options available)
2. Information on local community-based ESL classes (for adults as well)
3. Information on homeschool programs and resources available for homeschooling
4. Information and resources for private schools
5. Information and resources on applying to colleges and universities (scholarships etc)

Schedule a consult today or email your needs to cortney@thecoreimpact.com !!!